GENERAL GRANT

Said To-day: "I Feel Better Than I
Have Since I Came Up
Here."

An Epidemic of Diphtheria is Declared at Laporte, Indiana--The Cholera.

General Grant.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

Mr. McGinnis, N. Y., June 21.—General Grant had another restful night. At 2 o'clock this morning the doctor attended him to clean his throat of mucus. When his throat had been washed the general said in a comparatively clear voice, "I feel better than I have since I came up here." The sick man then slept until 4 o'clock, when the doctor attended him again and food was given to him, again the general rested. The physician to-day says the patient's voice is possibly a shade stronger, though quite steady, except when his throat has been cleaned out. Dr. Shadley will arrive this afternoon to make an examination for the official bulletin for the medical record.

So far from being prostrated by his unwanted work yesterday General Grant, after eight hours of sleep last night and this morning, has resumed his work to-day.

He received a message from Portland, Maine, saying the Grand Army of the Republic tendered him good cheer on behalf of 300,000 soldiers and sailors of the union.

The general received a communication and read it in person, expressing pleasure theret and returning thanks over his own signature.

The Cholera Rages.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

MARSH, June 21.—Official reports for Monday from cholera infected districts of Spain are as follows: Valencia City, new cases, 27; deaths, 15; Valencia province, new cases, 431; deaths, 198; Castellon De La Plana province, new cases, 100; deaths, 260; Murcia city, new cases, 82; deaths, 25; Murcia province, new cases, 207; deaths, 63; Cartagena, new cases, none died, 1; Cien Pazuelo, new cases, 8; deaths, 5.

In Madrid Tuesday there was one new case of cholera and there were three deaths. In Cortes yesterday Senor Bonomo, minister of the interior, stated that in consequence of the favorable report made by the commissioners appointed to inquire into the subject of inoculation with cholera microbes, the discovery of Dr. Ferran, as a preventive against the spread of cholera, the practice of inoculation would be allowed, but only, however, as an experiment.

A Duel in Progress.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

RICHMOND, Va., June 21. District Attorney Waddell was arrested here yesterday, charged with being about to engage in a duel with C. A. Swanson, editor of the Hanover News, and was bailed to appear before the court-to-morrow. An order for the arrest of Swanson is also out. The abuse of Waddell by Swanson in his paper was the cause of the trouble.

The Wabash Reorganization.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, June 21. The English bondholders' committee, after a thorough investigation of the Wabash affairs, have agreed with the New York committee upon a plan for reorganization which has met with the approval of all concerned and the plan will be put into effect at once and the nature of it will soon be made public.

The G. A. R. Reunion.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

PORLTAND, Me., June 21.—The streets are crowded to-day again with a hundred thousand visitors. Everywhere the uniform of the Grand Army is conspicuous, and at last the encampment of veterans have settled down into comfortable camp life. Good order and good nature prevails everywhere.

A Fire at Muncie.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

MUNCIE, Ind., June 21.—The failure of O. H. Andrews, the wholesale and retail dealer in drugs and books and proprietor of three stores, was a surprise. He assigned to W. H. Little, Insolvent $20,000; with assets supposed to be sufficient to pay in full.

Doing Great Damage.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

HUNTERSON, Ill., June 21.—The wire

worm is doing great damage to growing corn. Farmers report entire fields ruined by this pest and destruction is very rapid. Whole fields of corn are being ravaged in a single day or night.

The Fire Record.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Last night fire in Knobler's art gallery caused $25,000 damage.

Cut His Throat with a Knife.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 21.—Cornelius B. Demarest, of the firm of A. T. & C. B. Demarest, manufacturers of pleasure carriages, while laboring under a temporary fit of insanity, cut his throat with a carving knife this morning.

His Wife Interferes.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—John McCullough's wife was in New York Monday. Should the actor be arrested on account of his dangerous mental condition, his custody will be demanded by Mrs. McCullough's counsel, and he will be placed in some asylum in that city. McCullough is believed to be worth about $21,000, and his wife is well provided for.

Appointments To-day.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The president appointed L. A. Kirkwood, of Indiana, a postoffice inspector. Twenty others were named.

INTERNAL REVENUE REPORT.

The fiscal year ends June 30 and according to the receipts from internal revenue, customs and miscellaneous sources, the falling off in estimates for the year will be about $10,000,000; $2,000,000 in internal revenue; $4,000,000 in customs and $4,000,000 in miscellaneous. The expenditures have been greater for pensions and deficiencies than was anticipated, so that the surplus for the fiscal year will probably be between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000 less than it was calculated by Secretary McCulloch in his report to congress last year, leaving the surplus at about $20,000,000, instead of $32,000,000.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

William W. Allen, who was to-day appointed marshal for the middle and southern district of Alabama, is a graduate of Princeton college, and served in the war as major-general in the Confederate army, since which time he has acted as recorder of the city of Montgomery and engaged in the practice of law.

REMOVALS.

Secretary Manning made a number of dismissals in the treasury department to-day, including sixteen clerks in the sixth auditor's office, and eighteen messengers, most of whom were employed in the interior revenue bureau. It is expected that more removals will be made between now and the 7th proximo. Mr. Graves, chief of the bureau of engineering and printing had a conference with Secretary Manning this afternoon in regard to the proposed reorganization of the bureau.

K. T. Merrick died this morning.

It is learned to-day that the dismissals made in the department of justice yesterday will take effect the first of July, when a new discharging clerk and six new assistant attorneys or law clerks will be appointed to take the place of the present occupants. The force of special examiners numbering five, including general agent, have been dismissed. It is understood that their offices will be abolished.

The Post to-morrow will say that the investigation of the accounts of the bureau of equipment of the navy department now being carried on by the special committee detailed for the purpose by the secretary of the navy, promises to develop some revelations of an interesting nature. Already some difference has been discovered in the books, but they will not be published until the whole investigation is concluded, which will not be before another month.

Acting Commissioner of Pensions McLean has been for some time engaged in the work of reorganizing the boards of examining surgeons throughout the various states, on the plan adopted by General Black, of removing two from each board in the various cities and filling the vacancies by the appointment of Democrats. He expects to complete the reorganization of the entire state of Pennsylvania before the end of the present week, and within the next month he will have all the boards in Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, and Vermont reorganized. It is intended to-morrow, the former to surrender, and the latter to receive the seals of office.

SR. PETERSBURG, June 21. The government have issued a decree increasing the tariff on imports 10 to 20 percent.

BOSTON, June 21. The pope will create six new cardinals at the consistory to be held on the 13th of July, proximo.

BOSTON, June 21.—A fearful explosion occurred to-day in a powder mill at Lucia. A number of people were at work at the time and very few escaped death or serious injuries. Already the bodies of twelve of the 130 missing have been recovered.

Defending Herat.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

BOSTON, June 21.—The fortifications around Herat, designed primarily to protect that city against assaults by the Russians, are being rapidly pushed to completion. The Afghan boundary commission will move in a short time nearer the line of delimitation.

It is Cardinal Walsh.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

DUBLIN, June 21.—A special from Rome to the Evening Journal states that Rev. Dr. Walsh, president of Maynooth college, has been appointed archbishop of Dublin, to succeed the late cardinal, Archbishop McCabe.

Give the Seats.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, June 21.—Members of the Gladstone ministry went down to Windsor Castle to-day and delivered up the seals of office.

Lord Salisbury and his minister later accepted office and the crowd outside the castle cheered the party.

LONDON, June 21.—Earl Granville announced to the house of lords this evening and Mr. Gladstone made a similar announcement in the house of commons, that the Marquis of Salisbury had accepted office, and he had gone to Windsor Castle to so inform the queen. Motion was made in each house to adjourn.

Mr. Gladstone said he hoped, by to-morrow, to be able to inform the house of the nature of the communications which passed between himself and the Marquis of Salisbury upon the subject of the recent cabinet deadlock.

The house of lords adopted all the amendments to the redistribution-of-seats bill which passed in the house of commons. The house then adjourned until Thursday next. The house of commons has adjourned until to-morrow instead of Thursday as proposed.

The crisis in the political affairs is believed to have been passed and it is most probable to-day that all differences between the conservatives and liberals will be arranged, and the conservatives will form a new cabinet. It is said that some technical points only yet remain to be settled. In principle, it is claimed, Mr. Gladstone has not departed from the lines originally adopted by him; but he has made fuller concessions to the conservatives than were hoped for.

It is reported here that Baron Von Stasi, the Russian ambassador, has been instructed by his government to maintain an attitude of reserve towards the government of the Marquis of Salisbury; also to insist that Zulikar pass sought to belong to Russia, in order to check any advance Afghanistan may propose to make into Russian territory.

It is believed that the Rt. Hon. Sir William Hart Dyke will be chief secretary for Ireland. Both the old and the new ministers will go to the Windsor castle to-morrow, the former to surrender, and the latter to receive the seals of office.

SR. PETERSBURG, June 21. The government have issued a decree increasing the tariff on imports 10 to 20 percent.

BOSTON, June 21. The pope will create six new cardinals at the consistory to be held on the 13th of July, proximo.

MADISON, June 21.—The riot here last Saturday was mixt to the subject of an animated discussion in the center yesterday. Senator Neglecta and other liberals strongly condemned the rigorous measures taken by the government to repress the riots.

An Enraged Solon.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 21.—The investigating committee which has been engaged in sifting out the charges of bribery and corruption of members of the legislature, completed its work this afternoon. The only witness examined by it was F. H. Tubbs, district superintendent of the Western Union telegraph company, who swore a point blank that Representative Baker had offered to kill the telegraph bill for $2,000; $500 down and the balance at the end of the session. Baker was present when the statement was sworn to and to it his temper so far as to call the witness a liar. When Baker took the stand he swore directly to the contrary of Tubbs, and stated that he had never made such a proposition nor received any money for his vote or influence in the house. On cross examination Tubbs swore that he did propose to have his affidavit made public unless the bill was rushed at the afternoon session of the house. When the house convened there was such a clamor for recognition on the part of the members that the speaker troubled to maintain order, and he arose and left the chair, which was taken by Mr. Fuller.

Civil action was brought to-day against Representative Thomas James by the parents of the girl whom it is charged he outraged. The damages are set at $20,000. Mr. James was in the house to-day.

Vale College.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

NEW HAVEN, June 21.—The commencement events at Yale to-day were the meeting of the alumni this morning and the election of two members of the corporation and anniversary of law department this afternoon. Vice-President Hendricks was present at the alumni meeting and made a brief congratulatory address. A resolution was adopted in favor of changing the name of Yale college to Yale university.

NJEWARK, N. J., June 21.—One of the features of the Turners Bazaar to-day was a swimming match from the Triton boat house to the opposite side of the river and return, a distance of twenty-four yards each way. The contestants were Edward Link, of West St. Louis; Hellmuth Schumacker, of Newark; Louis Rohr, of Milwaukee; Richard Baethe, of New York; George Kullen, of Jersey City; Charles Krueger, of Chambersburg, Pa.; Valentine Ebecker and Max Rinckel, of New York. The match was won by Rohr in seven and a quarter minutes.

Escaped Serious Injury.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

PITTSBURGH, June 21.—The through express coming east on the Pan Handle railroad, collided with an empty accommodation train at Biggettstown, Pa., twenty-seven miles from here, about 6 o'clock this morning. Both engines were thrown from the track and wrecked. Engineer James Conroy and fireman Charles Downing, of the accommodation, were cut and bruised, but not seriously hurt. The passengers on the express train received a terrible shaking up and were badly frightened, but no one was injured.

Forepaugh's advertising car is in the city. The city and county will be completely filled now.

The superior court is not in session.

The voting on the Quilt and Wagon will close to-morrow (Wednesday) night at Simpson Fair.

Statesmen and Dress Coats.

Attorney general Garland's alleged aversion to a dress coat recalls the fact that President Garfield had a member of his Cabinet with the same peculiarity—Secretary Kirkwood, of Iowa. He had served several years in the Senate, and there was nearly a year in the Cabinet, and never once wore a dress suit—not even when he attended a state dinner while still Secretary of the Interior, or given by President Arthur at the White House. He had said when he first came to Washington that he would not wear a dress-coat and he stuck to it. Before he went into the Cabinet he would not accept any dinner invitation, not even those from the Executive Mansion, which are usually considered a command, and he never did so until that to which allusion is made above was given. When Mr. James Speed, of Louisville, was Attorney-general in President Lincoln's Cabinet, he at first declined to wear a dress suit or gloves, though both were then fashionable, on any occasion, and for the first state dinner he attended at the White House he did not change his clothes after leaving his office, had a stain of tobacco on his shirt front, an iron chain to his watch and no gloves. In speaking of it immediately afterwards to the writer, he said of himself and brother Joshua, who was also at the dinner, "The two Speeds were the only men who had on no gloves," and was evidently very proud of it. After that Secretary Seward persuaded Attorney-general Speed to buy a dress suit and gloves, and he always wore them when occasion required.—New York Graphic.

Commerce the Year Round.

Don't make too many resolutions, but hold on like grim death to those you do make. If your physical system is out of order you should attend to that at once; for its no use trying to keep a stiff upper lip when your kidneys or liver are taking the courage out of you. If you have made up your mind to turn over a new leaf, commence the year by taking a thorough course of the celebrated Kidney-Wort. Thousands of people testify to its good effects for kidney disease, biliousness, piles, constipation, etc.

Frances Ready to Strike.

Every family is constantly in danger from impure water, nitrope fruit, unwholesome food, contagious diseases, rickets, cholera morbus, cough and colds, indigestion and simple fevers. In such cases a bottle of Parker's Tonic kept in the house renders it unnecessary to call a physician. Nothing so good for children.

Advice to Mothers—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other lewdly.

Beware of Scrofula

Scrofula is probably more general than any other disease. It is insidious in character, and manifests itself in running sores, pustular eruptions, boils, swellings, enlarged joints, abscesses, sores, etc. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels all trace of scrofula from the blood, leaving it pure, enriched, and healthy.

I was severely affected with scrofula, and for over a year had two running sores on my neck. Took two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and consider myself cured.

A special officer will be detailed for duty at the Princess to-night. People who insist on seeing the singer from bidders and adjacent chicken coops will be arrested as disturbers of the concert.

The Chicago Commercial club went east via the Pittsburg road this afternoon. The trip from Chicago to Fort Wayne was made in three hours and forty-five minutes. The party goes to New York.

The Simpson M. E. church fair will close this evening. All the most important articles, as an oil painting, gold watch, silk quilt, etc., will be cried off at 9 o'clock to those getting the highest bids.

Complaint books have been hung up at the city hall and the engine house. People who are bothered by cows can file their grievances on paper at the places named and Poundmaster Wehnke will attend to them promptly.

C. C. Slack, deputy reporter of the supreme court at Indianapolis, was in the city this morning, en route to Bluffton, where he will spend a few weeks with relatives. Charlie used to live here and was at one time a clerk in the Fruit House.

The Lafayette Courier has this gossip of W. H. Sherwood, who appears in the singerfest concert to-night: "There was a very fair audience at Trinity church last night to hear the piano performances of Mr. Wm. H. Sherwood, of Boston. Those present undoubtedly enjoyed the best piano concert ever given in Lafayette. Mr. Sherwood unquestionably ranks with the greatest living pianists, and his work last night gave evidence of high artistic talents. He gave another entertainment this afternoon."

HARMONIOUS HORNS

Announce the Opening of the Ninth Indiana Saengerfest Amidst Much Splendor —The Speeches of the Eyes.

At 8 o'clock last night quite a large and appreciative audience assembled at the Princess rink and all were in spirit to welcome heartily the greatest musical feast in the history of Fort Wayne. The hall was tastily decorated and evergreen ropes hung in graceful folds as they encircled the house. Floral baskets were suspended from the ceiling, flags gave brilliancy to the scene and emblems of music and song dotted every part of the great auditorium.

The stage rose from the footlights and the picture of the evening was one hundred chorus girls in white, with faces pretty and smiles for the multitude. On either side of this beauteous bevy of maidens were seated the male choristers, while Austin & Rosenlecker's First Regiment orchestra of Chicago and Reineke's orchestra, of Fort Wayne, occupied the space immediately in front. John Mohr, the pianist, sat to an artist grand instrument at the right and in the center Prof. Otto Schmidt, the director, stood on a platform slightly elevated.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Mayor Charles F. Muller stepped to the front and said in a distinct way:

Visitors and Ladies and Gentlemen:

As mayor of the city, I bid each and every one of our guests a free and hearty welcome to the hospitality of Fort Wayne.

Our city feels honored by the presence of those this day gathered here. The object of your meeting is one that is highly commendable, as by these gatherings you build a taste and desire for music, which is productive alone of peace, harmony and pleasure.

To-day the names of but few of the many that are gone have left a nobler and sweeter memory than those of Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Mozart and their compatriots.

I trust that your annual reunion will be satisfactory to you all in every respect and that your stay among us may be so pleasant that we will again be honored by your presence. I now, as the mayor, tender to you the freedom of the city.

Allow me now the great honor of introducing to you all our distinguished guest, his excellency, Governor Gray.

Governor Isaac P. Gray smilingly came forward and bowed to the applause. He said he was present in response to the invitation of the Germans of Fort Wayne and, although severely pressed for time, he could not forego the pleasure of again visiting the city that had so many pleasant memories for him. He came to meet his friends, renew acquaintances and make new ones, but he did not come with an address either in his head or pocket, and assured the assembly his words would be from his heart and such as an occasion like the Saengerfest inspired. He told how music made every occasion complete, added sublimity to religious form, nerved the arm of the soldier, soothed sorrow and increased joy. He described how music echoed the feeling of the peoples nations of the earth and told of their servitude from slavery to the highest form of liberty. He asked what American has never heard the "Star Spangled Banner" and "Hail Columbia" without pride and emotion characteristic of the nation. He then traced the history of music and song from ancient times, putting it in the ear of progress and then beside the other arts of mankind. Italy once was the school of music, but Germany now wears the laurels, and her Wagner was the first to introduce the feast of song that Fort Wayne today enjoys. He wished the occasion success, as he felt the Saengerfest meant peaceful pleasure, joy and mirth. He hoped all the visitors would get safely home, loaded with pleasant memories of the great feast of song.

Mr. Fred Mack, of Indianapolis, bearing the colors of the state Saengerfest, then said in the German tongue: "I present this Saengerfest flag to Fort Wayne in keeping until the next feast calls it to other hands. This flag is the pride of the singers of Indiana and Fort Wayne may pride itself in the keeping of the rich emblem so eagerly sought."

Henry C. Berghoff, for the society of Fort Wayne, received the banner, and although his words were in the purest German tongue, THE SENTINEL can translate and give its readers Mr. Berghoff's words. He said: "We receive this flag with a feeling of pride, and it is needless to say we welcome the cognizance of the Indiana Saengerfest. That harp and color is emblematic of music and song, the joy alike of rich and poor, whose hearts throb in union at its bidding and whose lives are enabled by its spirit. The Germans were always averse of music and song, not only in the land of their birth, but the land of their adoption. In America the song of the German betokens a free, happy heart, a love of liberty and contentment under the constitution. He asked the Germans to stand by the flag of song for in its folds no danger lurks."

In the musical program there were twelve numbers. The opening selection was A. Thomas' overture, "Raymond." The orchestra rendered this piece with enthusiasm as they did Weber's overture, "Der Freischuetz." This band surpasses anything ever heard here.

The Arion and Bengerband societies, of this city, sang Leinenkugel's "Willkommen" and Schutz's "Heile Heilige Musik" with splendid effect and in powerful voices.

Mr. Adolf Scheulte, of this city, sang Albin's solo, "In Dunkler Nacht," very sweetly and was tendered applause. Mr. Scheulte is always agreeable.

The appearance of Miss Fanny Kellogg was the signal for a warm greeting, and, escorted by Mayor Muller, the lady bowed her way to the front. Her first number was with the grand mixed chorus, in Mendelssohn's "Pymper." Miss Kellogg was in splendid voice, and spirit and feeling was in everything she did. Her reception pleased her and her soprano solo, "Blades Air," resulted in an ovation which she gracefully acknowledged by another song. Her closing number was again with the chorus in Rossini's "Inflammatus" from Stabat Mater.

The celebrated Haydn Quartet, Messrs. Olds, Yarnelle, Lang and Worden gave two selections—Kashot's "Reebold and Birdies" and Buck's "Robin Adair"—in a charming manner, so nicely indeed that they were required to respond to an encore.

Charles Webber's tenor solo was one of the features of the feast. He sang one of Raff's ballads and Franz's "Widunning" so well that the assembly was captivated and more so by his response to a call. There is music in every bit of Mr. Webber's voice and he handles it like an artist.

Professor Otto Schmidt's violin solo was very pretty and sparkled with purity, but the professor's greatest hit was in his leadership.

D. M. Babcock's bass solo, "With Joy the Impudent Husbandman," was a gem rich and rare. He has a magnificent voice and his response to the second call attested it.

The concert was a grand success, as was the matinee this afternoon. The program for this evening is as follows:

SAENGERFEST NOTE.

The visiting singers are greatly pleased with their reception.

There was another grand rehearsal this morning and all the societies participated.

Col. Jim Wilkinson gives his guests a magnificent entertainment, and knows how.

Miss Kellogg's dress was exquisite and the ladies were delighted with the prima donna.

Captain Hettler will look every inch a chief at the head of the procession Friday.

Fred Schimmeckle rode Hon. R. C. Bell's Kentucky thoroughbred in the reception business yesterday.

The Beethoven Liederkranz, of Richmond, arrived this morning. They settled their quarrel with the Richmond road.

Miss Fanny Kellogg receives $300 and expenses for her engagement here. D. M. Babcock receives $150 and Sig. Charles Webber $150. Their expenses are also paid.

The reporters are nicely situated in the musicians' gallery on the east side. Newspaper men alone will be admitted to the place. This is in reply to fresh people who desire the information.

Rudolph Worch, of the Michigan Advertiser, from Jackson; Charles Hodges, of the Indiana Tribune, from Indianapolis; and Elidor Willkom, of the Indiana Post, of Evansville, are visiting newspaper men of the Saengerfest.

Governor Gray asked Miss Kellogg to sing a favorite song of his last night. The prima donna could not comply as she had not the music. Said she, "I will sing it Wednesday afternoon," and the governor said, "I will remain to hear it."

The visiting societies number six. Their headquarters are as follows: Indianapolis Liederkranz at the Stutz Cafe; Lafayette Concordia with George Strou-

THEY WERE SNUBBED.

General Manager Talmage refuses to see an Andrews Committee.

When General Manager Talmage and Capt. G. W. Stevens went west from Fort Wayne day before yesterday, they stopped at Andrews to inspect the property of the company. During the afternoon a committee, composed of between forty and fifty of the business men of Andrews, waited on Mr. Talmage in his car, but he refused to see them. The committee were bent on proving that they had nothing whatever to do with the Knights of Labor trouble at Andrews which resulted in the recent machine shop lock-out.

When the committee left, Mr. Talmage was heard to remark that if it could be proven that the citizens of that place had anything to do with this last trouble with the Knights of Labor in their machine shop, he would take the shop away from there at once.

The Gause Works Sold.

The Gause Agricultural works were sold by Deputy Sheriff Wise yesterday. There was a big syndicate of local capitalists present, but none of them bid a cent, save George H. Wilson. His proposition was $1,212 and Mr. Wise closed the sale with him. Mr. Wilson probably represents the wealthy stockholders of the works, who may organize on a new scale, leaving the small stockholders out entirely. The ground, machinery and shop of the company are worth $35,000.

Why She Didn't Marry Him.

"Yes, I live pleasantly enough with my husband," she said, "but I believe I should have married Augustus, if all the girls hadn't made fun of him and said he'd be as bald as a pumpkin in a year or two." Young men, take warning and use Parker's Hair Balsam. (Cleanses the scalp, restores color, removes dandruff.)

The Wabash Strike.

Forty men went to work in the Wabash shop to-day and are principally engaged on repair work, about all the company wants now. No engines run in the works and the main furnace fires are not kindled. Most of the Knights of Labor here are anxious to resume labor, but dislike to break faith with the Spring-field and Moberly men.

It is reported that a strike is impending upon the Wabash road at Moberly, Mo., to continue to Chicago, and that eighty-five private detectives have been sent down from Chicago to stop it.

Ex parte by the English holders of Wabash bonds have arrived in this country, and will make a complete inspection of the books of the company, and the physical condition of its roads. This is preliminary to the consideration of the proposed
